Question #1 – Are guilt feelings valid for a Christian who has sinned? How would you counsel such a person? What Scripture would you use?

Question #2 – How can a believer distinguish between true and false guilt? How should each be dealt with?

Question #3 – How should we witness to a person who has no sense of guilt before God?

Question #4 – If we are totally forgiven through faith in Christ, why do we need to ask forgiveness when we sin? Can you think of any Scripture to support your thoughts?
